Frank Mannheim to Present Mordecai Myers Research At Historical Society Meet Tuesday

At the monthly meeting of the Schenectady County Historical Society Tuesday, Frank Mannheim, instructor in European history at Union College, will give the result of extensive research concerning the life of Mordecai Myers. Mr. Myers, at the age of 72, retired from business, social and political pursuits in New York and moved to Schenectady. He had served as a captain in the War of 1812 and for five years as a member of the New York State Legislature, had made two fortunes and lost one.

Named Democrat Mayor

In 1831, three years after he came to Schenectady and when he was 70 years old, he was elected Mayor as a Democrat. Three years later he was elected again, had a stormy administration and resigned. Later he was an unsuccessful candidate for Congress at the age of 84.

Mordecai Myers lived in Schenectady for 33 years, died in 1871 and was buried in Vale Cemetery. One of his daughters became the wife of Edgar M. Jenkins, once registrar of Union College, and still remembered by many. Another daughter remained unmarried and, until her death in 1903, lived in the Myers home at 231 Union Street.

The meeting will be held in the Historical Society's rooms at 18 Union Street and is free to the public.

Miss Manheim Is Wed To Christopher Ryan

Mrs. Christopher W. Ryan was Katherine Manheim

The Roman Catholic Church of St. Thomas More was the setting here yesterday afternoon for the marriage of Miss Katherine Quittner Manheim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joseph Manheim of 2 East 88th Street and Redding Ridge, Conn., to Christopher Worral Ryan. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fortune Peter Ryan of New York and Murray Bay, Que., and a great-grandson of the late Thomas Fortune Ryan, the financier.

The Rev. Thomas Phillips performed the ceremony. A reception was held at the Colony Club.

Mr. Manheim, who is a partner of Lehman Brothers, private bankers, escorted his daughter. She wore a gown of ivory silk faille with ruffles at the neck, sleeves and hem, and a tulle veil fastened to a matching faille headband. Her bouquet was of lilies of the valley.

Fortune Peter Ryan Jr. was best man for his brother. Ushers were Grant Coffin Manheim, brother of the bride, and Hugo de Fritsch. The bride, an alumna of the Brearley School here and the Foxcroft School in Middleburg, Va., attended Barnard College. She made her debut in 1965 at a dinner dance given by her parents at the St. Regis and was one of the provisional members of the Junior League of New York introduced at the league's Debutante Ball.

They carried ferns and white flowers.

Mr. Ryan, who is a freelance photographer, was graduated from the Canterbury School in New Milford, Conn., attended the University of Pennsylvania and served with the Marine Corps in Vietnam. His father, who is retired, was president of the Royal-McBee Corporation.
